The Age of the Millennials

- Of those born between 1979 and 1994, over 90% use the internet.
- They grew up with the internet.
- As of 2009, 80% had cell phones and 36% use text messaging.
- Most have broadband for downloading music and watching videos online.
- This group is a proving ground for the future.

83 percent of Millennials sleep with their cell phone on or right next to their bed, making it the first and last thing they often reach for each day.

How Should African
Businesses Respond to such a marget segment?

Is it even relevant in Africa?

Relevance - High

- Increasing accessibility to new and emerging technologies
  - Technologies becoming cheaper and simple
  - Internet access becoming affordable (relatively) to the consumer
  - Convergence of technological platforms to enhance
- Birth of the proactive consumer

Social Media and Millennials

- Social media characterize a set of interrelated internet applications which enable users to communicate easily, create, share, enjoy and interact with content - information, ideas, personal messages, and other users

Web 2.0 and Social Media

Web 2.0 as a combination of new and old trends of accessing and using the Internet which originate from tools and applications that deliver richer user experiences and harness collective content creation.

Social media are Web 2.0 tools and applications which enable interaction, content syndication, inter-networking and other means of social collaboration.

Functions are the roles that Web 2.0 tools perform, and these tools are themselves classifications of the web software applications or which are normally called websites.

For example, Blogger is an application utilizing the concept of Blogs (tool) and performing the “communicative” function.

Classification of Web 2.0

Table 1 Classification of Web 2.0 applications

Type	Function	Tools	Web applications
Communicative	To share ideas, information, and creations	Social networking, Blogs, Audio blogs, Video blogs, IM tools, Podcasts and Web-conferencing	Facebook, Blogger, YouTube, MySpace, Twitter, BumpIn, Vidipedia etc.
Collaborative publishing	To work with others for a specific purpose in a shared work area	Authoring, Editing tools, Virtual communities of practice (VCOPs), Wikis	Wikipedia, Vidipedia, Netcipia, Wordpress
Documentative (content management)	To collect and/or present evidence of experiences, thinking over time, etc.	Blogs, Videoblogs, E-portfolios, Open Journalism	SeeNReport, Calameo, Drupal, Joomla
Generative	To create something new that can be seen and/or used by others	Mashups, VCOPs, Virtual Learning Worlds (VLWs)	Amazon (customer comments), Second Life, Flickr, YouTube
Interactive	To exchange information, ideas, resources, materials	Social bookmarking, RSS, VCOPs, VLWs	StumbleUpon, Delicious, Facebook, MySpace

Social Media and Millennials

- Social media has turned users into proactive consumers
- - look for information
- - comment
- - share
- - interact

Strategies for African Businesses

ESTABLISH GOALS

1. Define SMART Goals and Objectives

Some companies aim to accomplish objectives such as the following:

- ❑ Increase market share
- ❑ Increase the number of comments on a blog
- ❑ Increase sales revenue
- ❑ Reduce operational costs in managing customers
- ❑ Achieve branding goals
- ❑ Increase database size
- ❑ Improve customer service and retention

Goals can contribute... to existing goals

- Social Media can support existing goals
  - cost reduction in customer service
- Social Media can help define new goals
  - Build and maintain an online audience
  - Extend the brand loyalty

Strategies for African Businesses

RESEARCH

2. Understand the market segments on the social media platform you want to use

2. Age Groups

3. Gender

4. Interests

Facebook Users

Ghana – 1,541,100

Nigeria – 5,865,740

USA – 166,201,020

Age groups of Ghana Facebook Users

Ghana: 68% male facebook users and 32% female

Nigeria: 68% male users and 32% female users

South Africa: 49% male and 51% female in South Africa;

USA: 46% male users and 54% female users in United States

LISTEN AND UNDERSTAND

3. Social Media is about ANTHROPOLOGY and not just Technology

- Understand your consumers
- Understand what and how they want to interact
- Understand how to involve them with the creation of products and services

4. You need to select appropriate social media tools

- ❑ There are many of them and new ones are coming up each day
- ❑ Some are more appropriate for professional discussions as compared to social discussions
- ❑ Some have already been adopted by your CONSUMER

Facebook visitors are “maturing”

In June of 2007, nearly over 35% of Facebook traffic came the 18-24 year old segment, compared to around 22% in June 2008.

With the bulk of this traffic shifting towards the 25-35 year old group, this movement could be a result of the site’s original base of college students.

Strategies for African Businesses

Implement Strategy: Build

- Set Your Home Base
  - Corporate Blogs
  - Corporate Websites
  - Facebook/Twitter Page
- Link all of the other social tools to the home base

Example: User-driven Fashion Designs

Users comment on upcoming designs or give their views on sketches or even submit sketches

Every Social Media Manager Should Be Under 25

Published by VIVA Africa Editor on October 3, 2012 | 0 Comment

Why Every Social Media Manager Should Be Under 25 by Cathryn Sloane | University of Iowa

In an interesting article written by Cathryn Sloane of University of Iowa, Cathryn discusses why every social media manager should be a millennial. On key argument she puts across is:

The key is that we learned to use social media socially before professionally,

Read this article and share your views here on what you think about Cathryn suggestions...

Social Media needs a team or an ecosystem that is dedicated and have passion to share and connect....

Tangibles

1. Special Events
2. Prizes/Awards
3. Ambassadors
4. Use all opportunities – sorry is not a bad thing in social media
5. Be REAL – don't lie and don't spam
6. Be Transparent

Social Media Strategy is NOT the same as Digital Marketing!

Correct Social Media Strategy Model

Source: Tim Ho <http://tim-ho.com/>

Where most people focus on

Targeting Online Customers

- Select a targeting strategy.
  - Which targets to serve online
  - Which locations
  - Other factors
- Two targeting strategies are well-suited for the internet.
  - Niche marketing
  - Micromarketing
- The internet's big promise is individualized targeting.
